Destination Services (DSC) Welcomes Account Manager, Kelsey Nolan

Experienced five-star, five-diamond hotel Conference Services Professional will be Key Addition to DSC Team

Colorado Springs, CO . . . Destination Services Corporation (DSC) an award winning destination management firm specializing in corporate meetings, special events and activity & ground logistics, welcomes Kelsey Nolan as its newest Account Manager. Based in DSC's Colorado Springs office, Nolan will be charged with creating and managing corporate group events with our local vendor partners and the prestigious Broadmoor Hotel.

A Colorado Springs native, Nolan earned her Bachelors degree in Art History and Economics from Scripps College in Claremont, California. Nolan brings with her an extensive knowledge of the destination along with hotel and event management experience. Prior to joining DSC, Nolan worked in the conference services department at The Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs. "This was an exceptional property for me to learn the ropes of customer service, and event planning," stated Nolan, "and provided me with an excellent foundation to excel in my Account Management role with DSC."

"We are extremely excited to have Kelsey join our team in Colorado Springs," says Susan Fort, General Manager – Colorado Springs, "Her enthusiasm for business challenges and her strong commitment to customer service and relationships will serve her well at DSC."

DSC is an award-winning destination management company that serves as a single resource for coordinating group visits to Colorado, Utah and Lake Tahoe; providing airport and local transportation, dining, events, team building, tours, speakers, entertainment, staffing and related convention services.
